The Sherman Oaks Neighborhood Council (SONC) Executive Committee shall review and affirm and/or modify this document at least once every other year. The Council President with Executive Committee approval may establish an ad-hoc rules committee for the purpose of amending this Standing Rules, Policies and Procedures document (henceforth referred to as Standing Rules). To ensure proper and effective representation of SONC and that the council speaks with one voice:

It is the policy of SONC that the President is the official spokesperson of the Council. At the discretion of the President, or as provided in these rules, another Neighborhood Council member may be designated as spokesperson on a specific issue.

Individual Board and Committee members who wish to speak, write, or express their own individual opinions in public venues or media outlets shall proclaim that their communication is solely theirs and not intended to represent the views of SONC.

While an individual Board or Committee member may freely speak, write, or express their own individual opinion in a public venue or media outlet, no Neighborhood Council member or committee member shall, through use of SONC marks (such as branded apparel or badges/cards), verbal or written words, or otherwise, explicitly or implicitly represent their personal opinion as representative of the Neighborhood Council or its committees.

Neighborhood Council Members and committee members shall comply with any additional guidelines or rules published by the City of Los Angeles regarding external or digital communications.

C) Committees and their Duties (see bylaws Article VII, Sections 1,2,3)

SONC may have both Standing and ad hoc committees. A SONC committee can also appoint subcommittees or "working groups" of its members, which report to the committee. A subcommittee cannot adopt rules of its own (Robert's Rules).
